

POLITICAL PARADE

By CLEM WHITAKER

Show business and politics must be closely related, for good politicians—the boys who are really smart at their trade—are almost always superb showmen. And the reverse is equally true: Actors who win top billing, year after year, are usually first-class politicians!

When it comes down to fundamentals, of course, the boys are all working opposite sides of the same street. They all recognize that America loves drama—and they are doing their level best to provide it. Whether they put on their act on the stage or screen, or the public platform, is immaterial: they're all appealing for the plaudits of the crowd—and each, in his own way, does a bang-up job of it.

Let's take a look at the current cast of gubernatorial prospects, just to bring the situation down to cases.

Governor Culbert L. Olson, who would like to succeed himself, looks more like a Governor than any Governor this state has had in many decades—and it's a tremendous asset. Mr. Olson's countenance, on a billboard, or in a two-column cut in your favorite newspaper, is something to reckon with. He has everything the matinee idol has, plus grey hair and maturity.

Then take Senator Robert W. ("Bob") Kenny of Los Angeles. Mr. Kenny, who laughingly says, "My campaign is still in the hotel bedroom stage," has everything Jimmy Cagney has, plus an uncanny ability to find the votes before they are counted.

Speaker of the Assembly Gordon Garland is a different type; in personal appearance, he's much like Governor Olson, whom he detests most cordially. But in action he has the suavity of Robert Montgomery and Adolph Menjou rolled into one. Mr. Garland really has political aplomb.

Then there's Earl Warren, the unapproachable, unimpeachable, unswerving prosecutor—the man of character, who never wavers regardless of consequences. And Charles G. ("Handsome Gus") Johnson, the self-made man who looks like a blue-stocking. And Mayor Fletcher Bowron of Los Angeles, a crusading reformer in the flesh. And President Robert Gordon Sproul of the University of California, the man who is content where he is, but is sought by many.

Then, too, there's Justus Craemer of Orange, the state railroad commissioner, who has as his backer canny, old Friend W. Richardson. Mr. Craemer looks like just what he is—a successful country editor.

It's quite a cast; make no mistake about it. And California, before 1942 is ended, will be the setting for a rip-snorting, first class, political melodrama.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Snow of Campbell are the happy parents of a daughter, Donna Rae, born Oct. 19 at O'Connor sanitarium.

NAVY'S ENLISTMENT CAMPAIGN

In cities and towns of less than 50,000 population throughout California Oct. 27 marked the beginning of an intensified enlistment campaign for naval recruits.

Where city government exists a ranking official has issued a proclamation similar in text to that presented here. Lacking a mayor or city manager, may I submit the following announcement to all good citizens of the Campbell community?

Dr. W. R. Morgan
President Campbell
Chamber of Commerce

* * * * *

Whereas, October 27th has been designated as the beginning of a campaign for enlistments for our Navy, and

Whereas, it is necessary that our armed forces be recruited to full strength for national defense in the present world emergency, and

Whereas, the Navy has requested that all local agencies, organizations and groups assist in this worthy movement,

Therefore, urgently request that merchants, business firms, newspapers, cooperate in this laudable undertaking; and further urge that heads of the American Legion, Chamber of Commerce, Service Clubs, Women's Clubs, and all influential citizens act as a nucleus for arousing public and community interest in the Navy Campaign.

All patriotic young men in our community who are eligible for service are urged to consider the extraordinary advantages offered by our Navy for enlistment.

High School Students Make Marine Study

When the students of the high school return to classes Monday, Nov. 3 they will be inclined to think the sea has moved in on them. Sea urchins, crab, starfish and just plain seaweed will drape the biology rooms as a result of a joint field trip to be made by the two first period senior biology classes this Saturday.

Two busses will leave the school promptly at 7 o'clock for Monterey Saturday morning. Approximately 55 students under the supervision of Hal Drummon and Arnold Applegarth will make the trip, so if anyone happens to see a spare octopus wandering around he will know where it came from.

Cambrian Men's Club Plans Hop

The Men's club of Cambrian school has completed plans for its first dance of the new school year, a "hard time" affair.

It will be given Saturday evening, Nov. 1, at the Cambrian Grammar school auditorium. Dancing will be from nine to one with time out for refreshments at midnight. Prizes will be awarded for the best hard time outfit and also for the funniest outfit.

The Men's club sponsors troop 34 of the Boy Scouts and the funds raised at this dance will go into a building fund for a youth center for the Scouts and the Campfire Girls.

A son, named Larry, was born Monday, Oct. 27, at O'Connor sanitarium to Mr. Connor and Mrs. George McMahon of Campbell.

Secretary At High School Accepts Position At State

Miss Adeline Dewald who has been the very efficient secretary in the Campbell Union High school office has accepted a position as head of the office in the science department of the San Jose State college and is leaving the school here this week.

Miss Dewald will be greatly missed by all members of the faculty and the student body for her accommodating and capable service and gracious disposition.

The college department to which she goes is to be congratulated upon securing her as a member of the staff.

Miss Dorothy Penhall, with Miss Dorothy Fields as assistant, will succeed to the position here.

Red Cross Needs More Seamstresses

Mrs. Howard J. Smith, local head of Red Cross sewing, reports that there is still great need for sewing to be done. She says that if any organization can do work in its meetings, or its members will take work home, it can be obtained at the community room on Wednesdays, or by communicating with her at her home.

Mrs. Nellie Mills has charge of knitting.

Nicholas Barbieri, who had charge of the paper drive at the grammar school, announces that they collected 20 tons of paper. Donald Fahler got first prize for student bringing in the most. Mrs. Mabel Davidson's low 4th got first prize in lower grades and Mrs. Ruth Stewart's low 8th got first for upper grades.

Service Club Meets At E. R. Kennedy Home

The Women's Service club held its October meeting at the home of Mrs. E. R. Kennedy with Mrs. Ann Moreland and Mrs. M. J. Bohnett assisting. Tea was served to twenty nine members as the close of a pleasant afternoon.

The club passed the resolution for a safety signal to be put at the intersection of Winchester road and Campbell avenue. It was decided to help Mrs. J. W. Knowles once a month in her entertaining of the boys from Moffett Field.

The club is the sponsor for the Bluebirds, a newly organized Camp Fire group for young girls of eight and nine years of age.

Members sewed on articles for the Red Cross during the afternoon.

The next meeting of the group will be at the home of Mrs. Dan Clark on North Second street Wednesday, Nov. 20 at 2:30 p. m., with Mrs. H. M. Shadle, Mrs. Ruby Howes and Mrs. Marion Howes assisting. The program for that day will be a book review by Mrs. F. E. Peake, an honorary member of the club.

Mrs. Pierce In Auto Accident

A hit-run driving charge was made against William Cosio, laborer, of Modesto, yesterday after the car he was operating crashed into one driven by Mrs. Wilma Pierce of Dillon avenue.

The accident occurred at the Hamilton and Johnson avenue intersection where Highway Patrolman Ray Watkins said Cosio failed to observe the stop sign.

After the crash, Cosio left his injured passenger, Manuel Perry of Monterey, in the car and ran through the orchard into the Los Gatos creek bed. Patrolman Watkins was awaiting him when he came back to the road at another point, and reported that Cosio had been drinking. He was held in the county jail.

Perry was treated at the county hospital for minor injuries.

West Enders Form Improvement Club

A number of residents of the Campbell area west of Winchester road met at the home of Charles A. Clark Sunday and organized an improvement club, announcing their purpose to be betterment of civic matters, as well as plans for social gatherings.

W. J. Howard of Milton avenue was elected president; Raymond E. De Selle, Carolyn avenue, vice president; and C. R. Rogers, West Campbell avenue, secretary-treasurer.

Committees were appointed that will report at the next meeting to be held at the home of Ray Fish, West Campbell avenue on Nov. 23.

Jack Murdock, Reluctant Kiwanis Reporter, Tells All

Convention reports were heard at Tuesday's Kiwanis club meeting by the three delegates and other members who attended the California-Nevada district convention in San Jose last week.

There were registered at the conclave 32 members and their ladies from Campbell, which represents the largest number at any convention in the history of the club. Official reports were given by Joe Gomes, Jack Murdock and J. O. Leverton. Of particular interest was the fact that a member of one of the neighboring clubs, Dr. J. Hugh Jackson of Stanford, was elected district governor for 1942.

Next week Nick Hedegard will present Michael Antonacci, city engineer of San Jose, who will relate something about city planning.

Dr. W. R. Morgan and Carl Field were presented with 100% attendance pins, covering eight years of perfect attendance, and Ira Abbott and Dr. W. I. Merrill were presented with 12 year 100% attendance pins.

THE BEAR OF OAKLAND

For centuries sailors have believed that some ships have conscious personalities. That belief must be strong among veterans when they speak of the Bear of Oakland. All California knows her. The ship was launched 67 years ago in Scotland. In 1884 the United States bought her for the rescue of the Greely Arctic expedition—and she drove through 1400 miles of ice pack to save the survivors.

Then she was placed in the California-Arctic operation of the U. S. revenue cutter service. For 45 years the Bear carried medicine, food, law and authority to the bitter Alaskan coast beyond the Bering straits. Nearly each year she was "lost" in her grinding packs of ice; but each year the scarred hull and dauntless heart made home port.

Yet the "end" came. In 1926 a brand new cutter was commissioned, and the Bear was retired. She was given to Oakland for a nautical museum. Then the Byrd expedition needed a real boat the admiral could trust, for his Antarctic expedition. And Admiral Byrd and the Bear simply drew together. Twice the Bear of Oakland carried explorers to the Antarctic—and brought them back.

Now Uncle Sam has troubles at sea. Last week word came that the ship that brought to Boston her Nazi radio operators picked up in Greenland was—the Bear. There are modern dangers unknown in the old sea rover's youth: torpedoes, submarines, dive bombers. But the oaken-ribbed veteran is in there for the duration. She's that sort of a ship: the Bear of Oakland.

THANKS, ANYHOW, OREGON

A delicate diplomatic situation has been created by some good people of Curry county, Oregon. They want their county to secede from Oregon and be annexed by California. They say Oregon won't help develop county resources in chrome, manganese and cinnabar, and they figure Curry county would hum like sixty if California would take it over.

It is nice to know that near neighbors appreciate our enterprise. But that seceding business started the Civil War! And then, if part of Oregon found out how grand and exhilarating it is to be Californian, the rest of Oregon would want to come in—and then Washington and Idaho and Ohio and eventually even maybe Florida! California wouldn't be California any more—we'd be responsible for Mississippi floods, Minnesota blizzards, Florida hurricanes and dreary Northwest winters.

Sorry, Curry county. If those mineral resources are authentic, we might help you develop 'em with some smart California coin. But as to annexation—nope, but thanks just the same.

HALLOWE'EN

Tomorrow night is the yearly night of freedom for the perverse imp that seems to live in the saintliest of men.

As always, farmers will be quite furious at discovery of ploughs on roofs of barns. Merchants will be greatly put out over soap smears on plate glass windows. Old ladies who rush out with brooms to drive away marauders with tick-tacks will be mad as all heck—for maybe a moment or two.

But then the oldsters will grin and recall, with the exaggeration of memory, the seemingly wilder and much more daring stunts they pulled on Hallowe'ens of long ago. It's nostalgia for their own kid days that really gets under their emotional skins on the one great night of license for mischief—and the imp of perverse knows that and so has no fear as he goes his reckless way. Of course, we can't tell the kids that—not while we're lecturing them on the ethics of juvenile behavior! But the kids seem to sense it anyhow. That's what makes it Hallowe'en!

Orchard City Grange

A meeting of Orchard City Grange was held Tuesday evening, Oct. 28 in the I. O. O. F. hall. A candidate Miss Hazel Dell Wilson was voted into the organization.

The building of a grange hall was discussed. S. N. Hedegard reported on materials needed for the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Fry of Centralia, Wash., were visitors.

G. L. Husted reported on civic improvement and also on prune prices.

On the education committee Mrs. Lavinia Grattan gave a sketch of the great plains of the middle west where she came from.

A tribute of thanks was relayed to the grange from Frank Mitchell, chairman of the county fair committee for the wonderful work Orchard City grange did for the fair and the booth that it maintained.

Mrs. Sue Boyce of the gardening committee reported that it is now time to plant sweet peas, gladiolas and pansies.

State Master Sehlmeier reported that Grange Day at the state fair was the best it ever had been. At the recent convention Sehlmeier was re-elected state master and Stockton was selected as the next convention city.

A communication was read from the Campbell P.-T. A. asking for and stressing the importance of a stop and go sign at the intersection of Campbell avenue and Winchester road where so many children go every which way. A resolution was adopted to be sent to the board of supervisors asking for the signal. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Howdy, Folks: The tax-makers in congress are struggling with a tough problem. They can't decide whether to take it all or leave something to be borrowed.

We read about a school boy who was awarded a prize for being the champion smiler in his school, but then he isn't old enough to pay taxes, yet.

THE BOOK MARK

by marty

Death and Taxes by David Dodge.

From the remarks that I get a chance to hear, I am convinced that everyone is tax conscious today. Even writers of mystery stories have become infected with taxes.

David Dodge mixes taxes with a few murders. Perhaps he did so to make taxes more interesting. Well, take a tip from your Book Mark, don't let the title scare you away from a good, good murder mystery.

Before I find my way into a book, I listen intently from my vantage point on the desk, to bits of conversation between the librarian and the readers. More often than otherwise a reader looking for a mystery book asks for a story with many thrills and several murders. When such a request is made, "Death and Taxes" is usually the one that is selected.

Yes, I've been through the book several times. There are two murders and more than two attempted killings. The action of the tale takes place in San Francisco, and the two leading characters are tax consultants, George McLeod and "Whit" Whitney. George, the older of the two, gets himself mixed up with a blonde girl and gets killed. He had contracted to help the blonde file a claim with the government to get back a half million dollars that her father paid in taxes, over and above what he should have paid. "Whit" misses death by a thin thread in trying to run down the murderer of his partner. Sure, he gets him, but you would never guess the right one.

Nov. 2 to 9 is National Book Week. Without a doubt, your Book Mark will have a great deal to talk about next week.

St. Lucy's club will hold an afternoon card party on Friday, Oct. 31, at 2 p. m. in the Campbell parish hall, South Third street.

Ralph Fulton was visiting with relatives and friends here over the week-end. He is now stationed near Lompoc where his detachment is working on construction of new power and telephone lines.

PHONE 127 SERVICE and DEPENDABILITY

Navy Information Is Available At Campbell Press

At the suggestion of Secretary of Navy Knox, Richard H. Knappen of the Campbell Press has been made Navy Editor of the newspaper, to help the Navy in giving ambitious local young men information about the opportunities the "two-ocean" navy offers them for technical training and advancement as they serve their country in its emergency.

Men between the ages of 17 and 50 will be given a chance, by enlistment in the Navy and Naval Reserve, to get to the top, with big pay, in jobs which by their aptitude and as a result of examination they show themselves fitted. These include aviation machinist, dental technician, photographer, diesel engineer, radio technician, electrician, welder, storekeeper, and baker. Enlisted men may also qualify for commissions as officers.

In outlining the many advantages offered by enlistment in the United States Navy, Mr. Knappen of the Campbell Press said, "It is possible for a bright young man to increase his pay seven times during his first enlistment and he can earn as much as $126 a month. This monthly figure is actually worth much more when it is remembered that the man has few living expenses and is provided with the finest of medical and dental care.

"You have all your food and lodging, and also your original outfit of clothing provided by Uncle Sam free. In addition there are free sports and entertainment—even to the latest Hollywood pictures."

As Navy Editor Mr. Knappen has just received from Washington a supply of free illustrated booklets for all men interested and, in addition, will welcome inquiries from young men who wish to look into the new and greater opportunities the Navy now offers for training for future civilian careers as they serve their country now in its emergency.

Beginning this week, the Navy plans for a limited time to accept new qualified men for training. These men will be sent to one of four Naval training stations and may have a chance to go to a Navy Trade school even before assignment to the fleet. During this period they will be given regular Navy pay and the Navy's free schooling is valued at hundreds of dollars.

"Never in the history of the United States has there been greater opportunity for loyal young Americans to serve their country and build their futures than right now," said Secretary Knox.

Santa Clara draft board 111 sent 72 selectees to San Francisco Monday for examinations and induction into the army. In the group were James Cecil Malone, Kiyoto Yoshida and Orlie Raymond Bumpass, registrars from Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simonds had as their house guest last week Mr. Herbert Otte. He is a yachtsman of Maui, Hawaiian Islands, whom the Simonds met during their summers stay in the islands.

Teachers to Hold Institute Here

A Santa Clara county teachers institute meeting will be held Monday night at 7:15 in the Campbell high school auditorium, at which Dr. H. E. Chamberlain, consulting psychiatrist, and chief of the division of child welfare services will be guest speaker. His topic will be "Mental Hygiene Safeguards."

The high school orchestra will make its first public appearance of the year playing "Show Boat," "Tales From the Vienna Woods" and "Stars and Stripes Forever," under the direction of Kenneth McDonald.

Presiding at the meeting will be Ivan H. Linder, principal of the Palo Alto High school.

Garden Forum Meets Nov. 8th

The San Jose Garden Forum luncheon on Saturday, Nov. 8 at Hotel Sainte Claire will be a memorable one as it celebrates the first anniversary of the group.

Plans for the new year will be outlined and resume of the past year's work given. Among the activities of the 1941-42 year will be a garden class conducted by Elsa Uppman, head of the California garden school at Stanford, and a course in floral arrangements by Miss Patricia Oakes of San Jose.

Mrs. Joseph McGinty, president of the San Jose Light Opera association will be presented, after the luncheon, who, with Mrs. Alice Squires, director of the group, has arranged a program for the afternoon.

Appearing upon this occasion will be Joseph McGinty, Alma Carrington, Bernice Evans, Dr. John Howatt, Lucille Roberts, Antonio Bonaccorsa, Mrs. Robert Trevey, Carl Schlaegel, Mrs. Cora Cipolla and Anna May Smith, pianist.

The selections chosen for presentation are several from "The Firefly," "Sapphire Seas," "Sympathy," "Beautiful Ship From Toyland" and "When a Maid Comes Knocking At Your Heart"; "I'm Out on the Loose Again," and "When You're In Love You'll Waltz," from "Rio Rita," "Moonbeams" from "The Red Mill;" the quartet from "Mariatta" and "God Bless America."

Reservations for the luncheon may be made with the Sainte Claire hotel.

A turkey whist card party sponsored by the Campbell Union High School P.-T. A. will be held Friday, Nov. 7, at 8:30 p. m. in the high school gymnasium. One turkey for every four tables, door prizes and other prizes will be provided. Refreshments will be served.

Reserve the date, Saturday evening, Nov. 15, and plan to attend the program of magic and hypnotism presented by McGill, noted artist in these lines. More particulars of the program which is sponsored by the youth group of the Congregational church will be given later.

Reported from Reno was the marriage license issued to James Vestal, 21, and Ozell Pounds, 18, both of Campbell.

M. F. Hughes, master of the Orchard City Grange, mortored to Santa Barbara Oct. 20 to attend the grange convention held there. He reported that the convention was a huge success and that a large amount of business was transacted.

The general woman's guild of the Congregational church will hold the annual thank offering meeting in the parlors of the church, Thursday afternoon, Nov. 6, at 2 o'clock. The speaker will be Mrs. Annie Rhea Wilson who has been a missionary 36 years. Group 1 will be hostess.

Mrs. A. Raffanti and Rosemary Smith were recent visitors in San Francisco.

Mrs. Lillian Voge visited her son, Hervey Voge and family in Berkeley Sunday.
